STRIKE OVER.

The Ranks of the Duquesne Strikers Broken.

Between Five and Six Hundred of Them Go to Work.

Droguesses, Pa., Aug. 9.—Between 500 and 600 men, acting unanimously, as previously agreed on, effectually broke the strike is the Carnegie milling. They returned to work in a body, and the soldiers were not required to protect them. The rupair men had the mill ready for running, steam was attracted on, and several departments were almost full and began to ture out wars almost full and began to ture out wars almost full and began to ture out the strike of the seven and the soldiers were many members of the new amalgamated lodges formed her stance the strike began among those who went back to work and they did it openly, without fear of what their companions would say.
